

These men are from Sligo. They swapped shifts in the World Trade Center because one had a sick child. Now one of them is dead.

Irish Examiner

Friday, September 14, 2001

<http://www.irishexaminer.com>

<http://breaking.examiner.ie>

No. 55,738 £1 €1.27

The missing and the dead from the catastrophe in America There are thousands more

John Wenckus, from Torrance, California, was one of those killed.

Natalie J. Lasden, was one of the passengers on American Airlines Flight 11.

Leslie A. Whittington, 45, of Maryland, a professor at Georgetown University.

Attorney James Roux from Portland, Maine, was on board Flight 11.

Tipperary man Martin Coughlan was working in the World Trade Centre.

Suzanne Calley was an employee at Cisco Systems in San Jose, California.

Captain Jason Dahl of Flight 93 from Newark, New Jersey.

Darlene Flagg, Calif., was traveling with her husband retired US Navy Adm. Bud.

Barbara G. Edwards, 58, a school teacher from Palo Verde in Las Vegas.

Anna Williams-Allison, from Stoneham, Massachusetts was on Flight 11.

Christoffer Carstanjen, 33, of Turner Falls, Mass.

Ruth Clifford McCourt, Cork, 45, whose daughter Juliana, 4, also died.

Laurie Neira was on board American Airlines Flight 11 from Boston.

Glenn Webber, 35. His girlfriend's father, Tony, 53, was injured but survived.

Jude Larson from Los Angeles was on a United Airlines flight.

Actress and photographer Berry Berenson.

Sonia Morales Puopolo, from Massachusetts, a former ballet dancer.

Jeffrey Coombs, 42, of Mass. a passenger on American Airlines flight 11.

United Airlines flight attendant Alicia Titus.

Maclovía Lopez was killed when United Airlines Flight 175 from Boston.

Eric Hartono, a passenger on United Flight 175.

Candace Lee Williams on American Airlines Flight 11 from Boston to Los Angeles.

Stanley Hall killed aboard Flight 77, when it was hijacked by terrorists.

David Retik of Needham, Mass. was on board American Airlines Flight 11.

Flight attendant Michelle Heidenberger was killed aboard flight 77.

Mark Bavis, an amateur scout for the ice hockey team the Los Angeles Kings.

Peter Gay, 54, was a vice-president of a Raytheon plant in Massachusetts.

Tara Creamer, 30, from Worcester, Massachusetts, was killed.

Richard Ross, 58, from Newton, Massachusetts, was on Flight 11.

Lisa Frost of Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif. was on Flight 175.

Jackie Norton, of Lubec, Maine, killed aboard Flight 11.

Alan Beaven, an Oakland, Calif. a passenger on United Airlines Flight 93.

Karleton Fyfe, 31, from Massachusetts, was aboard American Airlines Flight 11.

Canadian Garnet (Ace) Bailey.

Chris Mello, 25, from Boston, was a passenger on American Airlines Flight 11.

Lynn Catherine Goodchild from Massachusetts was on United Airlines Flight 175.

Christopher Newton, 38, of Arlington, Va., executive of Work Life Benefits.

Mark Bingham, 31, San Francisco died on Flight 93 from Newark.

Timothy Ward, who was aboard United Airlines Flight 175.

Mildred Naiman, was on board American Airlines Flight 11, from Boston.

