Material to be used

Revisit the “How to enter” section for the Comment Category on page 6.

Use the prompts below to encourage discussion of ideas for comment pieces suitable for the Press Pass competition.

- Students could think about the prompts individually writing down any of their own ideas
- They could then be paired or put into slightly larger groups of three or four.
- Their ideas could then be shared with the class as a whole in a plenary style session.

Optional Prompts for discussion:

- Students could any issues on which they have strong opinions: (they need to think about things they rant about frequently!)
- From this list they could choose one issue.
- Outline briefly their opinion on this issue.
- Note aspects of this issue that they feel they would need to research or explore further. (Remind them they will need facts to back up their opinions!)
- Separate to their opinions on this issue, who else do they feel is affected by it?
- How do they think they could persuade people to pay more attention to this issue?
- Decide on main points might be and how they might sequence the

Optional:

You could now set a deadline for submission of an opinion piece which conforms to the competition rules.

Depending on your time constraints this can done within class time or as an independent assignment to be completed in their own time.

Opinion pieces...

- List any issues on which you have a strong opinion: (tip think of things that you find yourself 'ranting' about frequently!)
- Circle the issue that most interests you or that you know a lot about.
- Outline briefly your opinion on this issue.

- Write down aspects of this issue you feel you would need to research or explore further. (Remember you will need facts to back up your opinion...)
- Separate to your opinion on this issue, who else do you feel is affected by it? How do you think you could persuade these people to pay more attention to this issue?

- Have you any ideas on what your main points might be and how you could order them?

Decide whether you would prefer to write a letter to the Editor or a comment piece.

The competition

HOW TO ENTER

As part of the Press Pass initiative, students and schools have an opportunity to enter our prestigious competition, the winners of which will be honoured at a national ceremony early next year. The competition has five categories: News, Features, Comment, Photojournalism and Sport. There are strict and specific rules for each category which must be adhered to.

All entries must be submitted via the competition section of the Press Pass website:
www.presspass.ie

IMPORTANT!

- The work must be your own. It cannot be copied from any other source.
- News, feature and sport articles must be fact and not fiction.
- Any and all quotes you use must be taken from interview(s) you have conducted.

If you do not adhere to the strict guidelines, your entry will not be considered by the judges.
