

Anticipation Exercise:

Write down if you agree or disagree with the following statements

Statement	Before Video	After Video
The River Liffey was used as a resource for the textile industry
The main industrial hub of 18th Century Dublin City was called the Grand Canal Basin 100,000 people lived in the Liberties area of Dublin City in the 18th Century
Tannery Alley, Mill St. and Weavers Sq. all areas found in Dublin City today were named after the textile industries that located there in the 18th century

Did you change any of your answers? _____

What were the reasons for this?
