

HALLOWEEN SPECIAL!

Traditions around Halloween

Subject: SESE History
Strand: Local Studies
Unit: Feasts and Festivals in the Past

Halloween is a popular holiday that takes place on October 31.

On this day, many people carve jack-o'-lanterns out of pumpkins, or play games such as snap apple. Some people dress up as ghosts, skeletons, witches, and black cats. These activities are Halloween traditions that have been passed on from one generation to the next.

Discuss the Halloween traditions that happen in Ireland.

As a class, try to fill the spider web with the traditions of Halloween in Ireland.
