Useful Resource

Closing date:

Wednesday 20th December.

Details: Students can choose to complete the task using sketches, a physical model, or a CAD model.

To feature in the 'Geometry of Christmas' exhibition, teachers can share/send CAD files, images, or photographs to graphics@oide.ie. Alternatively, teachers can upload student work* to X and tag @Oide_PP_Tech4 and #Graphics.

The student exhibition will be released on our X@Oide_PP_Tech4 page

* If sending student work, please complete both the student and parent/guardian consent/assent forms found on pages 4 & 5 of this document and return the completed forms with your submissions.

Dear Parent(s) /Guardians(s)

Oide is a cross-sectoral support service under the remit of the Teacher Education Section (TES) of the Department of Education (DE), which supports the professional learning of primary and post-primary teachers and school leaders in all department-recognised schools and centres of education in Ireland. Currently, your child's school is working with Oide to capture classroom practice. This may include the use of photo/video/audio/written materials.

What material will be gathered, and how will it be used?

- Your child's learning and work may be gathered in a variety of ways, including photo/video/audio and/or written materials.
- This photo/video/audio and/or written material may be used by Oide to support teacher/school leader professional learning experiences. Such materials will be stored online at www.oide.ie

Your child can stop taking part in the project at any stage. Your child's surname will not be used in the published material.

What are your rights regarding personal data?

You and your child have the following rights, in certain circumstances and subject to applicable exemptions, in relation to the personal data we hold:-

- the right to access the personal data and information about our processing of that personal data
- the right to require us to correct any inaccuracies in the personal data
- the right to require us to erase the personal data
- the right to request that we no longer process the personal data for particular purposes
- the right to object to our use of the personal data or the way in which we process it

Please note that to help protect your privacy and that of your child, we take steps to verify your identity before giving access to personal data.

Oide will retain the photo/video/audio/written material for six years, after which it will be deleted. You may, at any time, request that we remove any photo/audio/video/written material involving your child by contacting the Oide Managing Director's office, which is the data controller for Oide.

For further information on data protection, please see <https://www.dataprotection.ie/>

Should you require any further information, please contact your child's school or email info@oide.ie
